

Read through and watch the videos from Resource 1 and Resource 2, then fill out the following Venn diagram:

Where do you think these answers belong in the Venn diagram?

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| Used all around the world               | Most common calendar                               |
| There are 29.5 in each month            | Based on moon phases                               |
| 365 days in a year                      | Months vary from 28 to 31 days                     |
| Helps keep track of time                | A solar calendar                                   |
| Based on revolution of earth around sun | Used by religions to determine religious calendars |